

Instructions to Mentors

Discipleship and Team-Building Training By Alan and Sandra Gage, Eglise de la Vigne, Nice

Introduction

The purpose of this addition to our website is to make training materials available which were developed by ourselves and other Vineyard leaders around the world, in French, for discipleship and team building. Our hearts desire is to see the Gospel proclaimed in order to grow the Church and extend the Kingdom of God throughout the world, and the French-speaking world in particular. Our guiding principle in making this material available is: “Freely you have received, freely give (Mt 10:8)”.

Notice 1

We ask that the mentors commit to a certain number of points before granting them access to the material on the site. They will need to print, sign and return the following commitment form to us by email. The goals of this commitment are:

- 1) To insure that the material will be used by people who have themselves been trained in view of discipling others.
- 2) To insure that the material will not be modified, in order to provide solid biblical teaching to those being trained.
- 3) To insure that each mentor contact us directly in order to insure that those being trained are being followed up locally as well as to follow up on the impact of this training material.
- 4) Be informed as to the number of people who are benefitting from these materials and to be able to pass on to mentors any modifications made to the material as well as to inform them of the availability of new material.

Commitment

I (name) _____

commit to

- 1) follow up personally the people to whom this material will be provided, or entrust the material to a local mentor who has been called by God and properly trained to disciple others.
- 2) never share with anyone else the login information entrusted to me allowing me to access the training material.
- 3) encourage anyone interested in gaining access to this material to request so personally through the website: lavigne-france.com.
- 4) never modify the material in any way without written permission from Alan and Sandra Gage.
- 5) inform Alan and Sandra Gage of any typing errors, awkward wording or other modifications you would recommend.
- 6) keep Alan and Sandra Gage informed about the training materials being used, the number of copies printed, the number of people being trained as well as where the training is taking place (as long as the sharing of this information in no way puts the beneficiaries at risk).
